Heber City Banker Named to IHC Wasatch County Hospital Board

28 Sep 1988

Dean C. Edwards

The Governing Board of Intermountain Health Care's Wasatch County Hospital recently announced the appointment to that board of Dean C. Edwards, Heber City, who is Assistant Vice President and Manager of the Heber City Branch of First Security Bank.

Wayne Terry, IHC Wasatch County Hospital Administrator, said he was pleased that Edwards chose to accept the invitation to serve on the hospital's Governing Board.

"This is a position that is all volunteer and involves a commitment of some time," Terry said. "We're very honored that Dean would chose to join with us in helping maintain the quality of service the residents of the Heber Valley and surrounding areas are used to in terms of the health care they are offered."

Edwards, who graduated from Bear River High School in Tremonton, said that on moving to Heber City two years ago one of the first things that impressed him was the fact there was a quality full service hospital in the community.

"I feel very honored to be able to serve on the hospital board," he said. "It's a great credit to the people of Wasatch County that they have worked all these years to maintain a hospital of such a fine quality here in the community. It's also a credit to Intermountain Health Care that they stepped in and included Wasatch County in their rural health care mission."

Edwards, who graduated from BYU with a degree in business management, said that while serving on the hospital's board, he will strive to maintain quality health care to the citizens of Wasatch County while at the same time working to expand the services offered by the facility to outlying areas of the region.

"I am constantly amazed at the dedication of the physicians, administration, and staff of Wasatch County Hospital," Edwards said.

"It's refreshing to see that they and IHC are truly committed to maintaining their mission of quality health care in the rural setting."

Edwards, whose parents live in Spanish Fork, is married to the former Lana Argyle, of Lake Shore, Utah County. Together they are the parents of five children: Angela, Scott, Cory, Brady and Ryan.

Before settling in Heber City, Edwards worked for First Security Bank in Delta, Spanish Fork, Provo and Carbon County. He has been with First Security for a total of 17 years.

Edwards is active in his church and civic duties having served as a bishop and high counselor in the LDS Church and on a mission to the East Central States for that faith. At the present time, he is a Scoutmaster and a member of the Heber Valley Rotary Club.

During this time away from work, the 42-year-old Edwards said he enjoys spending time with his family doing such things as camping, fishing and yard work.
